TOTAL SCORE (PAR 21)

In the spaces provided for each category, rank the nominees 1 (most likely) to 5 or 10 (least likely) in order of which you think is most likely to win. Then write in which nominee is your personal favorite to win. (If you have not seen all the nominees, you should choose your favorite of those you have seen. If you have only seen one, you should choose it as your favorite unless you really disliked it. If you haven't seen any, you may choose from all nominees.) Leave the spaces next to favorites and the total score space blank. SCORING: Add the numbers next to each winning nominee, adding one point if the favorite indicated wins the Oscar. The lowest score wins.
